No Director may resign if the corporation would then be left without a duly elected Director or Directors in charge of its affairs, except upon notice to the Office of the Attorney General or other appropriate agency of this state.

Directors may be removed from office, with or without cause, as permitted by and in accordance with the laws of this state.

Unless otherwise prohibited by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or provisions of law, vacancies on the Board may be filled by approval of the Board of Directors. SECTION 16. NONLIABILITY OF DIRECTORS

The Directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the corporation.

SECTION 17. INDEMNIFICATION BY CORPORATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The Directors and officers of the corporation shall be indemnified by the corporation, to the fullest extent permissible under the laws of the state of incorporation. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a Director or Officer of the corporation or while a Director of the corporation is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a Director, Officer, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, trust or other incorporated or unincorporated enterprise, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action or inaction in an official capacity as a Director, Officer, trustee, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a Director, Officer, trustee, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by applicable Delaware and Federal statutes as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. All such persons shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation against all expense, liability and loss (including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection with the indemnified action or inaction, and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director or Officer and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.

The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that the payment of such expenses incurred by a Director or Officer in his or her capacity as a Director or Officer in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding, shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such Director or Officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such Director or Officer is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article or otherwise. The corporation may, by action of its Board of Directors, provide indemnification and advance expenses to employees and agents of the corporation and others permitted to be indemnified by the applicable Delaware and Federal statutes with the same scope and effect as the foregoing indemnification and advancement of expenses to Directors and Officers.

If a valid claim pursuant to the above provisions of this Article is not paid in full by the corporation within ninety (90) days after a written claim has been received by the corporation the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such claim, and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required undertaking, if any is required, has been tendered to the corporation) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under applicable Delaware and Federal for the corporation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the corporation. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its Board of Directors or independent legal counsel) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in applicable Delaware and Federal statutes, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its Board of Directors or independent counsel) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

The right to indemnification and payment of expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereinafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Energy Services Coalition Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, agreement, or disinterested Directors or otherwise.

SECTION 18. INSURANCE FOR CORPORATE AGENTS

Except as may be otherwise provided under provisions of law, the Board of Directors may adopt a resolution authorizing the purchase and maintenance of insurance on behalf of any agent of the corporation (including a Director, officer, employee or other agent of the corporation) against liabilities asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or provisions of law.

Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors or to the President or Secretary of the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at any later date specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. The above provisions of this Section shall be superseded by any conflicting terms of a contract, which has been approved or ratified by the Board of Directors relating to the employment of any officer of the corporation.

SECTION 5. VACANCIES

Any vacancy caused by the death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise, of any officer shall be filled by the Board of Directors. SECTION 1. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- (a) The Executive Committee shall be composed of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.
- (b) The Executive Committee shall, between all regular meetings of the Board of Directors, have all singular rights, powers, and duties of the Board of Directors, except that the Executive Committee shall not:
 - (i) authorize an expenditure of corporate funds in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) that are in variance from the ESC Budget approved by the Board of Directors;
 - (ii) amend the Bylaws, though they may recommend amendments;
 - (iii) enter into any contracts or agreements with third parties relating to the property or affairs of the Energy Services Coalition for a period of more than one year; and/or

- (d) Minutes of all Executive Committee meetings shall be prepared by the Secretary and submitted to the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. MEMBER CATEGORY COMMITTEES

The corporation may create Committees for each of the member categories identified in Article 11, Section 2(b). All of the members of the corporation that fall in a given member category are members of their respective member category Committee. These member category committees serve several purposes.

Energy Services Coalition, Corporation Bylaws – Revised February 7, 2010

First, these Committees provide a vehicle for the members of individual member categories to identify and develop issues that they believe should be addressed by the corporation and to present such issues to the Board of Directors so they can be addressed.

Second, where the Board of Directors identifies issues to be addressed that need input from specific member categories, the Board can request this input from the appropriate member category Committee(s).

Third, where cooperative effort among members in two or more member categories is needed to address an issue, and formal coordination of this cooperative effort is needed, the appropriate member category Committees can provide this coordination.

The Board member(s) representing each member category Committee are the executive Committee for that category. They may create specific leadership positions for their membership category if supported by the members of their category Committees and approved by the Board. Any member of the corporation can bring issues or topics to the attention of their member category Committee or to the attention of the Board of Directors directly with the request that it be addressed. If any voting is required in the member category Committees, it shall be conducted according to the voting procedures specified in Article 12, Section 7.

There is no requirement that these member category Committees meet unless there is a need for them to meet. If they do meet, preference shall be given to holding any such meetings as part of the regular meetings of the corporation. If and when any of the member category Committees meet and identify issues that the Committee wants to be addressed by the Board and/or by another member category Committee, the Committee shall forward a written request to the Board and/or any other affected member category Committee.

SECTION 3. INDIVIDUAL STATE COMMITTEES (State Chapters)

Since the circumstances vary from state to state, a local-state specific problem solving capacity is provided by state-specific Committees. All the members of the ESC corporation that are located in or do business in a state may form and become members of an Individual State Committee (State Chapter) for that state.

Individual State Committees (State Chapters) are to be led, at a minimum, by a public sector co-chair, (a person who works for the state energy office or other public agency in that state) and a private sector co-chair (a person who works for an energy savings performance contracting company doing business in that state). State chapters may elect additional co-chairs or committee chairs as needed to assist the state chapter in carrying out its responsibilities. The co-chairs of the Individual State Executive Committee for each state are to be elected by the general ESC membership residing in the particular state using the voting procedures specified in Article 12, Section 7. Any voting required in an Individual State Committee (State Chapter) shall be conducted according to the voting procedures specified in Article 12, Section 7. Individual State Committees (State Chapters) and Individual State Executive Committees serve several purposes:

- (a) The Individual State Committees (State Chapters) provide a vehicle for the members of the corporation that are located in or do business in a particular state to identify and develop solutions to state-specific issues and to identify issues that are multi-state or regional in nature that should be directed to the ESC Board.

Energy Services Coalition, Corporation Bylaws – Revised February 7, 2010

- (b) Where the ESC Board of Directors identifies issues that affect an individual state or issues that affect multiple states but need to be addressed on an individual state basis, the Board can request that the appropriate Individual State Committees (State Chapters) address such issues.
- (c) Where cooperative effort among members from two or more states is needed to address an issue, and where a formal approach to such cooperative effort is needed, the appropriate Individual State Committees (State Chapters) can provide a forum for coordination.
- (d) The Individual State Executive Committees serve the important function of providing a first point of contact for corporations and individuals to bring questions, issues, or problems related to performance contracting in each state. The Individual State Executive Committees members are co-chairs of their respective Individual State Committees (State Chapters) and represent the activities of their respective Individual State Committees (State Chapters) to the ESC Board.
- (e) If or should a chapter become inactive (defined as no meetings, actions or officer elections) for a period of time that exceeds its required election for chapter co-chairs (defined in the bylaws as annually) the board of directors may appoint leadership to restore the chapter to active status; or coordinate Chapter votes of the members.
- (f) If a Chapter is determined to be inactive and efforts to restore it to active status have failed, the ESC Board can dissolve the chapter and all records, property and funds of the Chapter shall transfer to the ESC.

SECTION 4. STANDING COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors may organize standing Committees from time to time as necessary. Such Committees shall be established by resolution of the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors so chooses, it may only fill the chair position of a Committee. Standing Committees may also establish a vice chair and secretary. The members and officers of each Committee can be either Board members or non-Board members. These Committees shall work to carry out the objectives of the corporation and act in an advisory capacity to the Board. Meetings of members shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or at such other place or places as may be designated from time to time by approval of the Board of Directors. All meetings may be held by conference call, by other electronic means, or face-to-face.

Such annual membership meeting can be rescheduled by an announcement 30 days in advance of the meeting. Other meetings of the members may be held as determined by the Board of Directors. If the day scheduled for the annual meeting falls on a legal holiday, such meeting shall be held at the same hour and place on the next business day.

SECTION 3. SPECIAL MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Special meetings of the members shall be called by the Board of Directors, the Chairperson of the Board, or the President of the corporation, or, if different, by the persons specifically authorized under the laws of this state to call special meetings of the members.

SECTION 4. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or provisions of law, notice stating the place, day and hour of the annual meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be provided not less than ten (10) days before the date of the meeting, either personally, electronically or by mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the person(s) calling the meeting, to each member entitled to vote at such meeting. However, if at any time it is determined that that official business be conducted at membership meetings, the quorum required to proceed shall consist of fifty-one percent (51%) of the voting members of the corporation, including proxies. Except as otherwise provided under the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or provisions of law, no business shall be considered by the members at any meeting at which the required quorum is not present, and the only motion which the Chair shall entertain at such meeting is a motion to adjourn.

SECTION 6. MAJORITY ACTION AS MEMBERSHIP ACTION

Every act or decision done or made by a majority of all members of the corporation shall be considered binding on the corporation and its Directors and officers.

SECTION 7. VOTING RIGHTS AND PROCEDURES

Voting at duly held meetings shall be by either a show of hands or by written ballot. Members of the corporation absent from duly held meetings may provide written assignment of their vote to a proxy representative. Proxy representatives shall be qualified and certified by the Secretary of the corporation prior to voting.

Balloting must be conducted by auditable means including mail, fax, e-mail and hand delivery. Directors shall be elected by written ballot. Such ballots for the election of Directors shall list the persons nominated at the time the ballots are mailed, faxed, emailed or hand delivered. In order to ensure inclusion in corporate decision making of the views of members that work for both large and small organizations and to ensure inclusion in corporate decision making of the views of members that work different kinds of organizations the following voting rules apply:

- (a) In all votes of the corporation's members, in order to ensure representation of the views of those who work for organizations with a small number of employees who are members of the corporation as well as the views of those who work for large organizations with a large number of employees who are members of the corporation, voting on the election of Directors and all other issues will be carried out in the following way:
 - (i) All members can cast a vote, with their name and the name of the organization they work for stated on the ballot.
 - (ii) In counting the votes, no more than five (5) votes from members who work for one organization will be included in the final tally of votes. Where more than five votes are cast by members who work for one organization, the five votes will be allocated proportionally according to all the votes by members who work for that organization. This means that where more than five votes are cast by members who work for one organization, the votes included in the final tally for members that work for that organization will be as follows for each position: five (5) x {number of votes for a given position / total number of votes cast by member that work for that organization}.
- (b) In elections of Directors:
 - (i) All members can cast one vote for each position on the Board and these votes will be counted as described in part (a) of this section 7,
 - (ii) Directors will be selected from among the candidates receiving the majority of votes within each membership category,
 - (iii) If there is a tie vote between candidates in a Board election, such ties will be settled by a flip of a coin at the next Board meeting,

(iv) Election of Directors shall be conducted in a manner that is auditable.

When ballots are used, ballots shall:

1. set forth the proposed action;
2. provide an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of each proposal;
3. indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirement and, except for ballots soliciting votes for the election of Directors, state the percentage of approvals necessary to pass the measure submitted; and
4. shall specify the date by which the ballot must be received by the corporation in order to be counted. The date set shall afford members a reasonable time within which to return the ballots to the corporation.

Approval of action by written ballot shall be valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot within the time period specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action.

SECTION 8. CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

Meetings of members shall be presided over by the Chairperson of the Board, or, if there is no Chairperson or, in his or her absence, by the President of the corporation or, in his or her absence, by the Vice President of the corporation or, in the absence of all of these persons, by a Chairperson chosen by a majority of the voting members, present at the meeting. The Secretary of the corporation shall act as Secretary of all meetings of members, provided that, in his or her absence, the presiding officer shall appoint another person to act as Secretary of the Meeting.

Meetings shall be governed by Robert's Rules of order as such rules may be revised from time to time, unless other governing rules agreeable to all members present are used insofar as such rules are not inconsistent with or in conflict with the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or with provisions of state law.
