Building on Success

The 4th Annual ESC Market Transformation Conference Final Session (Building On Success) takes a close look at "real world" examples of things that go right, or wrong, through actual case studies of projects and lessons learned. The session's final presentation by the folks at Envision Charlotte closes out our presentations with a look at their efforts to build upon the success of energy and water projects undertaken in the Charlotte downtown area.

Doug Dahle, Senior Program Manager at the National Renewable Energy Laboratory, moderates this session that features presentations by:

- Shanna Harwell, North Carolina State University
- Sam Gunderson, City of Fort Worth, Texas

a 15 minute taxi ride from the airport. The Westin advises that a taxi from the airport should cost $23 (not including the gratuity).

- Sean Flaherty, Envision Charlotte

Don't forget the Welcome Reception -- August 31

Join us at our opening reception from 6:30 to 7:30 pm at the Westin Charlotte and start your Conference experience by networking with participants and exhibitors to ensure you get the most out of the event. The reception will be held in the exhibit area allowing attendees the opportunity to meet with our sponsors in advance of the start of the conference.

Sept 1: Host Chapter Reception Presents: A Taste of Carolina

The Host Reception at the end of day one is designed to maximize your conference experience. The two-hour reception, sponsored by Bank of America Merrill Lynch, will feature a taste of North Carolina right down to the moonshine. Come sample the North Carolina BBQ sliders, ham biscuits and shrimp cocktail, and a little Carolina moonshine before embarking on an evening in the entertainment district.
