In fact, sponsors for this year event have already begun to gather in our Virtual Trade Show affiliated with this year's conference.

The Virtual Trade Show is open year round and provides "exhibitors" an online booth in advance of, and after the conference. Sponsors not only get a booth at the conference itself, but a virtual booth on the ESC conference website as well. The virtual booth comes with a "virtual table" for business cards and brochures (links to your company website), in addition to a customized "virtual pop-up display" for your company information. Platinum Sponsors also get a "Virtual TV Monitor" in their booth to play a company video.
